CHRISTINE A. VEGA is an Intellectual Property Administrator responsible for all aspects relating to administering trademarks in the U.S. and international markets. She assists in managing large U.S. and international trademark portfolios. She is involved in conducting searches and educating clients on trademark selection in the U.S. and internationally, as well as policing client's trademarks to guard against potential infringements. She is also responsible for preparing state and federal trademark applications, and other documents relative to new or registered trademarks.

Operating as the firm's international trademark liaison, she corresponds directly with foreign associates, oversees the preparation and filing of documents with the international trademark authorities, maintains foreign trademark folders and docket, and obtains legalizations and certifications for foreign trademark filings.

Ms. Vega further assists with formal patent and copyright document filing, ensuring conformance with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office requirements. She also assists with the analysis and procurement of Internet domain names. She is involved in supporting the firm's attorneys in hearing and trial preparation for intellectual property litigation, as well as proceedings under the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy ("UDRP").

Ms. Vega is bilingual in English and Spanish.
